کب پہ آتی ہے وہا بن کے تمنا میری
زندگی شمع کی صورت ہو خدا یا میری
دور دنیا کا میرے دم سے اندھیرا ہو جائے
ہر جگہ میرے پگھلنے سے اجالا ہو جائے
ہو میرے دم سے یوں ہی مرے وطن کی زینت
جس طرح پھول سے ہوتی ہے چمن کی زینت
زندگی ہو میری پروانے کی صورت یارب
علم کی شمع سے ہو مجھ کو محبت یارب
ہو مرا کام غریبوں کی حمایت کرنا
درد مندوں سے ضعیفوں سے محبت کرنا
میرے اللہ برائی سے بچانا مجھ کو
نیک جو راہ ہو اس رہ پہ چلانا مجھ کو

INTELLECT

If vision is the goal of the intellect,

It becomes both the path and the guide!

Intellect elucidates this world of smell and colours,

It nurtures the eyes and the emotions!

It brings you to the stage of absorption and ecstasy.

And then, like gabriel, leaves you alone!

Love never guides any one to solitude,

Its very perception of self acts as a screen!

In the early stages it yearns for fellow travellers,

Ultimately, it means travelling all alone.

NO PLEASE, THANKS !

Thanks giving is a legacy and tradition of our rich Indian culture. Please and Thanks are prefix and suffix of any assignment. Though these two words are very short but very powerful. These two words are enough and capable to change the tendency, attitude and behavior of anyone even enemy. Being a part of the civilized society it is our utmost task to say thanks to those who render their help at the time of need.

We had taken a task of printing “Resonance” on the occasion of the Silver Jubilee Celebration but due to certain reason it was not possible to bring out “Resonance” at Silver Jubilee Function on January 29, 2015. We think this delay is for the best as we were able to capture some unforgettable moments of silver jubilee in this Souvenir.

Resonance is not a voluminous document but we are sure that it is sweet, beautiful and an eye catching document spread over 25 glorious years from the inception of Anjuman-I-Islam's Akbar Peerbhoy College of Education, Vashi till date. Silver Jubilee Celebration started with “SPREAD A SMILE CAMPAIGN” on November 27, 2014. We have organized 3 days Silver Jubilee Celebration from January 29 to 31, 2015 with our limited resources and we are happy to succeed in our efforts to organize a memorable event. The main attraction of this Silver Jubilee Celebration was the presence of whole management of Anjuman-I-Islam, the Founder Principal, Ex. Principal, Staff and Alumni from the first batch (1990-91) to 2014-15 batch.

We thank Almighty ALLAH who gave us courage, strength, determination, patience, confidence and sense of belongingness.

We are indebted to our Honorable President Dr. Zahir I. Kazi for having been kind enough to provide unconditional support for this celebration and he is a source of inspiration to release our souvenir.

We are grateful to our Hon. General Secretary Mr. G. A. R. Shaikh who offered valuable suggestions and encouraged us. He gave us time to time advice and paved the way to success.

As always, our Respected Executive Chairman Mr. Burhan Harris has shown great faith in us and gave full freedom to organize programmes according to our wishes. We are thankful to him for recognizing our efforts, encouraging and extending his constant support for the publication of “Resonance”.

We would be failing in our duty if we do not express our sense of gratitude to our donors and advertisers.

Particular gratitude is expressed to Huma Caterer and decorator for the beautiful arrangements.

Our special thanks to Founder Principal, Ex-Principal, Ex-Staff Members and the Alumni who were the stars of the occasion and their presence made a difference.

We gratefully acknowledge the joint efforts of all members of different Committees including the Core Committee which was involved in the preparation of Silver Jubilee Celebrations.

We wish to thank the teaching and non-teaching faculty of AIAPCE, who assisted and rendered their help in organizing the Silver Jubilee Programmes.

Last but not the least, the cooperation received from our current batch students is also acknowledged & appreciated.

We appreciate the views of Alumni published in “Resonance”. Their views are published without editing as they show their feelings and sentiments towards the institute.

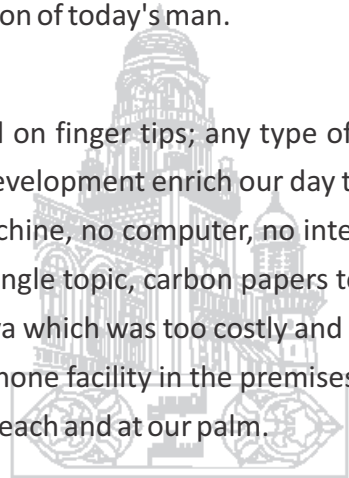

Working together on SILVER JUBILEE CELEBRATION and SOUVENIR with all its ups and downs, it has been the most enjoyable and a rewarding experience for all of us. Our deep debt of gratitude to all those who have encouraged, helped and supported us in various ways. Without each of them Silver Jubilee and “Resonance” would have never been possible.

TEACHER : Custodian of Values and An Educational Technician

Anjuman-I-Islam's Akbar Peerbhoy College of Education was established on July 30, 1990 and this year college has celebrated its Silver Jubilee Anniversary. This institute produced teachers with high ideals, morals, dedication, sincerity, hard work and so on and is still in service of the mankind. But with the changing scenario and unstoppable development it is difficult to keep our values intact and morality is at its verge. In this alarming situation teachers role become most significant.

Take a copy of 'Resonance (Mauj-E-Sada)' with deep and strong emotions, clear voice, foresighted vision, complete determination and full confidence that every one of us is an important player to bring back our society's core values which we have lost in materialistic society. In the era of technological advancement the value of printed material is declining and importance of writing is losing its identity which is another reason of disappearance of core values. It is true that today world is in our pocket and that computer, internet, mobile etc are some wonderful invention of today's man.

Presently knowledge can be accessed on finger tips; any type of information is available through search engines. Facilities available through development enrich our day to day life. I still remember the days of my student's life. There was no xerox machine, no computer, no internet, no mobile and we used to keep on search books for hours to find out a single topic, carbon papers to make copies and the only way to reach people outside our city was MTNL seva which was too costly and not available easily in those days. When I joined this college there was no telephone facility in the premises and we had to travel 1 to 2 kilometer to make a call. Today everything is in our reach and at our palm.

Symbol of Secularism & National Integration

Unfortunately in the intensity of shiny development and advancement our values are disappearing. We blame 'Corruption and Development' for our declining values. We must not forget that 'Corruption and Development' are the two sides of the same coin. Corruption is not new to this world. Centuries ago, messengers and reformers raised their voices against corruption. Rousseau, a great philosopher, who wrote number of articles against corrupt society and his writings were the main reason behind French revolution, he had an opinion that corruption is because we are not following the nature and going against its wishes. In those days corruption was in the corridors of politics but today corruption is rooted everywhere including education. It is very dangerous and a matter of concern. Today education is on sale; education has become a comfortable and profitable business. Money has captured whole industry of education. Schools, Colleges, Universities were the centre of knowledge and excellence in the past but today these institutions are the centre of bribed money and corruption. It is because teaching profession has lost its values.

Tumhari Tehzib (Civilization) Apne Khanjar (dagger) Sey Aap Hi Khudkushi (suicide) Karegi,

RESONANT VOICE

Honesty, sincerity, truth, good deeds, kindness, love, affection, respect, sympathy, justice are some inborn qualities of teachers but today's teacher is far away from all these qualities. Teachers are responsible for declining values to some extent if not fully. On the contrary the only silver lining in the clouds is the teacher who can be the true saver of our society's values.

It is said that, "teaching profession is a noble profession." It is true but it requires unlimited and unfinished characteristics and qualities to become a noble teacher such as self confidence and self respect, excellent appearance, healthy and energetic, good intellect, high character, sense of humour, optimistic, democratic, fair and just, sympathy and empathy, punctuality, regularity, enthusiasm, industriousness, etc. Teaching profession demands some Personal and Social values such as love, patience, courtesy, sharing, forgiveness, loyalty, devotion, good manners, repentance, gratitude, tolerance, responsibility, determination, service, positive approach, brotherhood, accountability, punctuality, justice, equality, honesty, sincerity, coordination, discipline, ambition, dedication, truthfulness, creativity, etc. and above all respect for elders, love and affection for younger, and faith in colleagues.

We should not enter in teaching profession unless we love it. It has no promise of wealth and fame, but they to whom it is dear for its own sake are among the nobility of mankind. We sing in the praise of the unknown teacher who is king of himself and leader of the mankind. This, we may say, is the philosophical meaning of teacher, but is very relevant.

Teacher plays his role as technician in the society. For a technician things should be at proper condition and all faults should be corrected. A technician loves the things which are not working properly or damaged. He puts all his efforts to bring the things in proper condition. He takes pain to give new life to a non living thing. Usually or sometimes he sacrifices his life for his devoted love for his profession. A teacher's life is the best example of sacrifice, love, affection, dedication and so on. He is the architect of nation's builders. As Kothari Commission rightly said that the "destiny of nation is being built in classrooms". A child or student is the reflection of his teacher's personality. His roles are multifaceted. For a teacher, life of a child should be more important than content. He should not teach content only but understand the child. He must be aware of his child's emotions, sentiments, traits, qualities, characteristics. His responsibilities are unlimited and never ending. Not only child but societies see him as a role model. Their expectations are high. A teacher is a source of all type of values and an ocean of knowledge. He is custodian of values in real sense.

Teri Sada (Voice) Ka Hai Sadiyon (Centuries) Sey Intezaar Mujhe

Mere Lahu Ke Samundar (Sea of Blood) Zara Pukaar Mujhe

THE TEACHER FUNCTION IS TO HELP THE YOUNG CHILD IN HIS HANDS TO BECOME WHAT HE IS CAPABLE OF BECOMING,
NOT
WHAT THE TEACHER THINKS HE SHOULD BE.

کالج کے طلباء سے خطاب

امانت قوم کی ہو ملک کو لعل و گہر تم ہو
 شب دیجور کی تم صبح ہو، نورِ سحر تم ہو
 زمانے کے تقاضے، حاصلِ جمہوریت ہو تم
 تخیل شاعروں کے، وعدہٴ انسانیت ہو تم
 بہاریں منظرِ جن کے لیے تھیں وہ گلستاں ہو
 چھپے ہوں، سینہٴ صحرا میں وہ لعلِ بدخشاں ہو
 جبیں بے داغ ہو، جس کی وہ مہتابِ درخشاں ہو
 خزاں نے جن کو پالا ہے، وہ اندازِ بہاراں ہو
 تمہیں میں غالب و سودا تمہیں میں میر بھی ہونگے
 یہیں اقبال جیسے صاحبِ تکبیر بھی ہونگے
 کبھی دیواں تمہارے زینتِ علم و ادب ہونگے
 زمانہ سر جھکائے گا تمہارے روزِ شب ہونگے
 تمہارے واسطے تعمیرِ کالج زلفِ لہرائے
 تمہارے واسطے علم و ادب آغوشِ پھیلائے
 تم اپنے علم کی طاقت سے ہر طوفاں سے ٹکراؤ
 نہ لو تیغ و سناں، تھامے قلمِ دیوار بن جاؤ
 اگر گھونٹو تو دنیا میں تشدد دکا گلا گھونٹو
 اگر رُوٹھو، تشدد سے تعصب سے سدا رُوٹھو
 سیاست نے کیا گمراہ تم مشعل دکھا جاؤ
 مثالِ سبزہٴ خود رُستہ اس گلشن پہ چھا جاؤ
 تم اپنے ہاتھ میں پرچمِ اماں کا تھام کر نکلو
 پیامِ امن دو، ہندوستان کا نام کر نکلو
 جواں ہیں حوصلے ہمتِ جواں پھر کیوں ہراساں ہو؟
 کرو تعمیرِ گلشن، آسماں گو برقِ سماں ہو
 اگر ظلم و ستم کے دیوتا کو رام کرنا ہے
 تو پھر کینٹین سے ہٹ کر ہمیں کچھ کام کرنا ہے
 سرِ شام آسماں نے ہر طرف تارے بکھیرے ہیں
 تمہاری بستیاں میں آج بھی کتنے اندھیرے ہیں !!

REMEMBER WHAT YOU STAND FOR !

Captain Vikram Batra was an officer of the Indian army. During the Kargil war, he sacrificed his life while trying to save one of his officers. His officer had got injured by the bullets being fired from the top of a cliff-rock. Someone had to go to get him to safety putting his own life into risk. Captain Batra didn't allow anyone else to go. He went ahead himself and was killed as he shielded his officer into the bunker. For his bravery and sacrifice, he was posthumously awarded the Param Vir Chakra - India's highest military award.

Captain Batra's life is an inspiration for us. He was a leader in true sense. He could have ordered someone else to go and get the injured official but he took the risk for himself.

While remembering heroes like Captain Batra, we should think about one aspect: what drives some people to do such exemplary acts? To my mind, they are focussed on their goal always. The goal drives them to put in their best. To them, the goal is bigger than everything and this commitment makes them overcome hurdle, face adversities and do anything possible even if it means risking their lives. Secondly, they pursue their goals based on principles. They always remember what they stand for. For captain Batra, the safety of nation came first, followed by safety of his team. His own safety came last.

Those who keep complaining about problems at their workplace should think about the life of uniform personnel. They perform their duty at the risk of their life. Can there be any problem bigger than the life- risking situations? Our workplace issues will seem trivial in comparison to a fire man risking his life to control fire, a police man trying to diffuse a bomb, an army man protecting the border and fighting a war. For us being in the line of fire may be just a phrase, think of those for whom it is a reality.

زندگی درد کے تپتے ہوئے صحرا میں جلی
ہم مگر ہنستے رہے زمانے کے لیے
Zindagi Dard ke tapte huye sehra me jali
Ham magar hanste rahe zamaane ke liye

A little tribute true and tender,
Just to show that we remember.
Time may pass and fade away,
But memories of her always stay.

سمندر کی لہروں سے بھی جواب نہ مل سکا
ہماری چاہتوں کا بھی کوئی حساب نہ مل سکا
پہاڑوں کے تلے ہم دب گئے ہوں جیسے
درد جدائی کا دے گیا ہے کوئی ایسے
دور اتنا روٹھ کے تم چلے جاؤ گے ہم سے
فاصلے ایسے بھی ہوں گے یہ سوچا بھی نہ تھا

Consciously or unconsciously, everyone of us does render some service or other. If we cultivate the habit of doing service deliberately, our desire for service will steadily grow stronger, and will make, not only for our own happiness, but that of the world at large.

چلو فریب سے دُور بسائیں ایک نیا گلستان
چلو مل کے ہم بنائیں ، ایک نیا ہندوستان
جہاں بدعنوانیوں کے لیے کوئی جگہ نہیں ہوگی
جھوٹے اور مکاروں کے لیے کوئی دوا نہیں ہوگی
کوئی ماں اپنے جگر کے ٹکڑوں کے لیے بیزار نہیں ہوگی
یہ دھرتی اب ناحق کے خون سے کبھی لال نہیں ہوگی

چلو فریب سے دُور بسائیں ایک نیا گلستان
چلو مل کے ہم بنائیں ، ایک نیا ہندوستان

جہاں صرف سچائی ہی کا بول بالا ہوگا
اور سب کے ہاتھوں میں امن کا پیالا ہوگا
نہ کوئی دشمن ہوگا ، نہ کوئی غدار ہوگا
یہاں ہر ایک ملک کا وفادار ہوگا

چلو فریب سے دُور بسائیں ایک نیا گلستان
چلو مل کے ہم بنائیں ، ایک نیا ہندوستان
یہاں سب محبت کے جام سے سرشار ہوں گے
ایک دُوسرے کی محبت میں سب گرفتار ہوں گے
نہ عصمت دری ہوگی اور راہِ زن یہاں شرمسار ہوں گے
اپنے وطن کی حفاظت کے لیے یہاں سب تیار ہوں گے

چلو فریب سے دُور بسائیں ایک نیا گلستان
چلو مل کے ہم بنائیں ، ایک نیا ہندوستان

کرنے ہوں گے ہمیں نہ جانے کتنے جتن
تجھی پیدا ہوں گے ، جاناز ، کتنے انمول رتن
ایسا ہی ہوگا میرے جذبات ، میری خواہشوں کا وطن
میری تمناؤں کا وطن ، میرے خوابوں کا وطن

Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam

He enhanced the country's defence capabilities? He used to write poems. Sometimes when we would go to pay our respects at Amar Jawan Jyoti, he'd compose a poem. He would not recite it here, but would quietly pass it on...

I have received two-three such poems... I felt some sort of vacuum when I heard the news (of his death). I did not expect it though he was ageing, he was hale and hearty... always jovial, brilliant.

President - PRANAB MUKHERJEE

We pay respect to our beloved President Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam who had inspired us tremendously. He had dreamt a peaceful, powerful, strong and united INDIA.

یہاں سے جھوٹی شاخیں شجر کی
مجھے نکلی ہوئی تھی گہری
نہ ان پر کچھ ایسے نہ رہے تھے
ستھری خوشنما چڑیا، چٹیلی پر
ہوں جیسے ماں سے ہم آغوش ہجے
ہوئی تھی محو سرگوشی گلوں سے

بڑے گھوٹسے رکھیں
وہ چبھاتے رہیں
ہوا کے لمس سے، شاخوں سے
چھون کے آئی رہے دھوپ

کیا یہ سدا اسباب خوشی تھے؟
کیا یہ میرے کلم بڑے تھے؟
میں تھے فضا کی کھوج ستیہالی
علم و ہنر کی قدر بڑھانی؟
یا ایسے ہتھیار بتائے
جو بربادی ساتھ میں لائے
دن میں عجب بیجان بیابے

لوہ بھرا ہو گئی اکتی تیار
میرے کتبے کا وقار
یہ تھی لوہے کی، تلاشِ تحقیق میری
گر دنیا میں، تھے جسے خولیں اجداد کی، قدر

Our (ANJUMANITES) sincere tribute to a great SOUL...

MISSILE MAN - DR. A P J ABDUL KALAM

Philosopher - Scientist and a Great Inspiration :

Maulana Wahiduddin Khan

A P J Abdul Kalam, former President of India, was a man of integrity. Intellectually, he was a scientific in temper and morally, a very humble person. He was born into a poor South Indian family which could not even afford to pay his school fees. But he worked very hard and continued with his education, and consequently went on to become a highly respected aerospace scientist in the country.

Abdul Kalam was not 'born with a silver spoon in his mouth'; yet he was born with a great 'incentive spoon' which was responsible for his tremendous success. His self-motivation and high ideals helped him, and he rose to the highest office of the country. Kalam's life has a very significant lesson, that is, that people's categorisation into rich and poor or haves and have-nots is unrealistic. The real categorisation is that people are either actual haves or potential haves. Those who today apparently belong to the category of have-nots can convert their potential into actuality, and thus enter the category of haves.

Kalam once said that, "If a country is to be corruption-free and become a nation of beautiful minds, I strongly feel there are three key societal members who can make a difference. They are the father, mother and teacher." This statement is a correct analysis of nation-building, because a person develops his personality in his formative period, during which he is under the supervision of his parents and teachers. If these three members of society resolve to guide the child in the right direction, then within one generation the whole situation of India will undergo a drastic change.

Regarding youth, Kalam said : "My message, especially to young people, is to have courage to think differently, to invent, to travel the unexplored path, discover the impossible and to overcome problems and succeed. These are great qualities that they must work towards." If we express these qualities in one word, it can be said that young people should make 'excellence' their goal; they should not accept anything less than striving for the excellent. In doing so, not only will they reach great heights of success, but will also be able to reform society along constructive lines.

It is said that even amidst his tight schedule, Kalam found time to put pen to paper, almost every day. This is a very creative habit because if a person restricts himself only to routine office work, he will experience intellectual stagnation. However, if he makes time for reading and writing, his intellectual development will go unhindered.

Kalam once also said: "India has a message for the world that religion could be transformed into a mighty spiritual force." This is without doubt a realistic statement, because India has traditionally been a country of high spiritual values. If India develops in spirituality, it will certainly become a lighthouse of spirituality for the world.

When Kalam was President, a reporter who was interviewing him was referring to him as "Your Excellency". Kalam cut him short, saying, "Call me Kalam". This is the key to Kalam's personality-he was modest to the core. His message is: Be modest and you will achieve success.

The memories are vivid and clear... It was 1991-92, Anjuman-I-Islam B. Ed. College, Turbhe, still under construction. No proper classrooms, no floorings, without water and washroom facility. In spite of all these... my encounter with the highly qualified, well trained Professors, who were always supportive and helpful hold a special place in my heart. The then Principal Mrs. Safia Ankolvi, the senior most was always too eager and willing to pass on her knowledge and experience to the youngsters. Her charismatic personality and her style of lectures used to mesmerize not just me but the whole class.

What I am today, I owe everything to them. May ALLAH, bless all of them with good health and great life...Ameen!

Anjuman-I-Islam's College of Education is a complete institution which gave me my identity. An institution, which I salute, is an epitome of education. I really wish institute to progress and flourish in this era of high competition. Because of good teachers and highly qualified Principal and cordial atmosphere which initiated a learning process for me after a break of a decade. Teachers are so helpful, guiding and hard taskmasters which enable students to work hard.

Institutions are sought after for the facilities they offer. Great institutions are characterized by the environment they offer. When I look back my alma mater I just remember the most wonderful moments it offered which became a cornerstone of my future development. These moments are about someone or some incidents which have left a lasting impression on me. The thought of Anjuman brings back all those precious moments which have laid the foundation for my present.

The most striking thing I remember about my alma mater is how it has inspired me. I still remember the pretty young professors whose very presence motivated to me to say 'aha'... This is what I want to be in life.

Anjuman offered me the space and direction to channelize my talents in a concrete manner. I discovered the joy of learning and interest in academics.

Anjuman helped me rediscover myself. I was a late bloomer. The enthusiastic and encouraging environment helped me discover myself and motivated me in charting a new direction to my life. The fire that sparked my urge for academics led me to higher studies. I completed my M.A., M.Ed., M. Phil., Ph. D., and cleared my NET examination after my B. Ed.

With great pride and gratitude I can say that my alma mater was the key to my success.

In this year of Silver Jubilee Celebrations I wish Akbar Peerbhoy college of Education all the best. May your great service bring upliftment in the lives of individuals, glory and honour to our nation.

Mrs. Tamkeen Yasmeen Rehman

(Topper of the academic year 1993-1994) & (7th Rank in University Examination)

Teacher, Father Agnel Multipurpose School
Vashi-Navi Mumbai.

I am proud to be an Alumni of Anjuman-I-Islam College of Education, Vashi-Navi Mumbai. I was working in Father Agnel Multipurpose School, Vashi in Primary section since June 1987. In June 1993, after seventeen years of graduation I Joined Anjuman-I-Islam College of Education to do my B. Ed. I was very apprehensive joining the regular college, but the college staff was so cooperative and encouraging that I regained the confidence to study again. A mother of two school going children, I had to balance my home and college. The professors in the college encouraged me and honed my talent to the maximum. I performed well in the college exams and received many prizes at the college. I was also awarded the "Over all Best Student" prize. I passed the Mumbai University exam with a distinction and stood seventh in the merit list. I record the highest marks in paper III which was about School Administration and Evaluation. Thanks to all my teachers.

After obtaining my B.Ed degree in May 1994, I worked as a Middle School Coordinator for fifteen years. Another feather in my cap, I was felicitated by Father Agnel School Vashi for completing 25 years of service in the year 2012.

In January 2015, I was given 'Toppers Award' at the 25th anniversary celebration of Anjuman-I-Islam. I was and am proud to belong to this institution. This college is an institution where thousands of students emerge as respectable, responsible teachers, who are committed to build young India's future. A thousand salutes to this college and its staff whose never ending support is instrumental in moulding many teachers' future before and years to come. Masha ALLAH!

Mrs. Gargi Pal (Achiever's Award)

Educator, Dhirubhai Ambani International School
Bandra Kurla Complex, Mumbai.

I, Gargi Pal, would love to share my fond memories of the institution.

To start with, the professors like Supriya ma'am, Salim sir, Fatima ma'am and the rest of the faculty members genuinely instilled in me the values and the qualities that has made me what I am today, an efficient educator at Dhirubhai Ambani International School BKC.

I still remember Salim sir entering a noisy class and instead of telling us to quieten down would simply, with a smile on his face, walk up to the BB and write down a thought for the day. The class would gradually quieten down and with ease he would begin his lesson. Here, I would like to extend my gratitude to you sir, as I often use this strategy to bring the class under control effortlessly. This has also helped some of my students to develop an eye for good quotes and thereby share it with their class mates.

The award giving ceremony shows that the institution does not forget their old students and this has been very heartwarming.

I would like to thank Supriya ma'am for trusting me to give a demonstration lesson to the new batch...made me feel very special.

I still cherish the positive remarks given by Fatima ma'am for the practice teaching...it boosted my confidence and has helped me to strike the right cord with my children.

Thank you and I would treasure every moment spent there.

I was a student of this esteemed institution in the year 1992-93. I was inspired, encouraged and motivated by the college and the entire team. Let me not forget to mention my then Principal (Late) Ms. Singh, a lady with good flair of English language from whom I got the confidence to speak. I enjoyed being a part of this institution.

بی۔ ایڈ کے طالب علم کی حیثیت سے جب میں نے انجمن اسلام میں قدم رکھا تو ایک نئی نرالی دنیا میں قدم رکھنے کا احساس ہوا۔ چونکہ ایم۔ ایس۔ سی۔ کرنے کے آٹھ سال بعد میں نے ایک طالب علم کی حیثیت سے کسی ادارے میں داخل ہوا تھا۔ عجیب سی کشمکش تھی۔ میرا استقبال کیا جائیگا یا میں ہدف تضحیک بنوں گا؟ مگر واللہ! میں نے اس انجمن کو واقعی انجمن دیکھا۔ مختلف خوشبوؤں کا چمن دیکھا۔ یہاں صبر فاطمہ کے ساتھ جلوہ قمر بھی تھا۔ اُٹی کی اُمتگلیں اور ڈیکا کا ہنر تھا۔ یہاں کجنتا نے کنز علم لٹایا اور اسماء نے اسم با مسمیٰ بننے کا گر سکھایا۔

Alhamdulillah I had a great time being a student once again. My training indeed helped me become a better resource person too.

'Education-an enlightenment of mind' dwells in an atmosphere of good environment and prosperous thinking. This is exactly the kind of atmosphere I found at Anjuman-I-Islam's Akbar Peerbhoy College of Education. I consider myself very fortunate to be associated with this institution. One year that I spent here was indeed a life changing experience for me.

At Anjuman's B.Ed. College emphasis was given on the overall development of an individual, mental, physical and moral development. Apart from classroom teaching by the excellent, qualified and dedicated teachers, we were personally guided by them for our practice teaching lessons. They brought out the best from us by giving their valuable feedback for every lesson.

The staff constantly encouraged and motivated us to participate in the various curricular and extracurricular activities that were conducted throughout the year. These activities provided a forum to exhibit our potentials and develop self confidence and determination to excel at all levels.

Social awareness was created through activities like community service and opportunity to serve the differently abled members of "Disabled Welfare Association."

In short, here at Anjuman-I-Islam's Akbar Peerbhoy College of education, students are groomed not only to become good teachers but also ideal citizens and good human beings.

Dear Readers,

Greetings and congratulation from the recesses of my heart. You are ONE OF THOSE blessed to have this manual to read in your hands. The journal depicts two and a half decades of dedicated efforts and sincere concerns of the teacher educators who empowered the aspirant graduates and post graduates with skills to educate the young and energetic school goers to a civilized and secular citizen, with the zeal and enthusiasm that grew many folds in comparison to their salt and peppered hair. Yes I love my teachers and the respect for them grows multiple folds whenever I encounter a challenging situation and handle them with blend of the innate potentials and learnt and relearned pedagogical techniques at the esteemed temple of education the Great institution Anjuman-I-Islam's Akbar Peerbhoy College of Education.

I feel proud to be an Anjumanite and a teacher trained under the guidance of Professors there especially their care, love and warmth. Psychology now talks about Emotional Intelligence and Children with Special Needs against I. Q. and several challenges called retardation in past. The Philosophy taught in this college inculcated the same from its inception in the teachers. Now all the teachers who graduated from this organization are the one who hold key role positions in hundreds of Schools, Colleges and Educational Trusts they are the ones who are the taught right Scientific Methods of Judgements and Evaluations in Education. Since I graduated as a teacher in the year 2000 I have received the timely guidance even after graduating from the institution. The institution has mentors as Professors and I owe every bit of my teaching to them all, especially to the beloved Professor Mrs. Fatema M. Q. Saleem and Prof. Qamar Saleem.

Throughout my career I never witnessed a Silver Jubilee Celebration designed and tailor made especially to encompass all the domains of its existence as an institution and appreciating and recognizing and educating to its alumni and society through its theme "Spread A Smile" the most lost and seldom gesture to commune and bind humans with humans and also with the scholastic theories and device nature. Congratulations to the Principal Dr. Asma Shaikh and Convener Prof. Saleem. This could have happened only under the umbrella of Anjuman. I congratulate the management of Anjuman-I-Islam to have a college of education as highly reputed as Akbar Peerbhoy that makes nation builders. My wishes to all at the college that may you celebrate hundred such Silver Jubilees and blessed forever.

Mrs. Fathima Kazim

Assistant Professor, AIAPCE

When I wanted to pen down the memories of my B.Ed. days it is just like going to the flash back. From the first day of orientation to the last day of final exam, the life of all of B. Ed. trainees was like the ECG machine report i.e. lines shooting up with full of energy or sometimes dropping badly. But, I must say there was never a straight line. The life as a student I lived had everything fun, discipline, exam stress, taking up responsibilities, field trips, excursion and so on the list goes endless. Above all I enjoyed my learning through my distinguished teachers who are priceless gem in themselves. I proudly declare myself as an Anjumanite if asked by someone from which teaching institute I belong.

Head Teacher,

Anjuman-I-Islam's Begum Sharifa Kalsekar Girls English Primary School, Mumbai

Almost every profession has been accused being prone to repetitiveness, boredom and stagnation. So, why single out B. Ed course whose very rationale is to stimulate interest in learning and development? That's also the reason why Professors at this college emphasize the need for new entrants into the profession to have a positive attitude and readiness to continuously learn, imagine, innovate and experiment.

People at Anjuman-I-Islam's Akbar Peerbhoy College of Education come from diversified professional background and ages are mixed. This makes discussions lively, fresh perspective, new friendship and an inspirational learning experience.

This college gave me an opportunity to set personalized targets and devote time to reflect on the type of teacher I always wanted to be.

Why did I Choose to be a teacher? For the incredible satisfaction of teaching, nurturing and moulding God's most wonderful creation only to have them come back, express their love and gratitude for the success they have achieved.

Mrs. Uzma Batey

I went to Anjuman-I-Islam's Akbar Peerbhoy College of Education for my B. Ed. course and I'm sure glad I did! Thanks to the Professors, my experiences have been valuable and diverse. With their input and wisdom, I feel I am well prepared for the teaching world. I found the entire course to be very much personalised while affording me with valuable one-on-one relationships with the faculty. They have taught me that the field of education is constantly about learning and expanding our knowledge; education is about being flexible and open-minded. As a teacher, I carry my passion in always wanting to learn new content and bring new teaching techniques into the classroom to pass on to my students. My experience has definitely exceeded my expectations and in my opinion this college is not just a step in the right direction but a leap towards your professional goals.

کسی ملک کا ترقی یافتہ یا ترقی پذیر ہونا اس ملک کے باشندوں کے تعلیمی معیار پر ہوتا ہے اور باشندے کا تعلیمی معیار اس ملک کے تعلیمی نظام، اداروں اور اساتذہ پر منحصر ہوتا ہے۔ انجمن اسلام بھی ایک ایسا ادارہ ہے جو ملک کی ترقی میں قدم بہ قدم اپنی موجودگی کا ثبوت دے رہا ہے۔ اسی ادارے کی ایک روشن شمع انجمن اسلام اکبر پیر بھائی کالج آف ایجوکیشن سر زمین واہی ہے اپنی روشنی سائوں سے بکھیر رہا ہے۔

تعلیمی اداروں کی ترقی اس کے تدریسی اور غیر تدریسی ممبران پر منحصر ہوتی ہے۔ یہاں کا ہر استاد اپنے میٹھ میں مہارت رکھتا ہے اور اس مہارت کو طالب علم میں پیدا کرنے اور برقرار رکھنے کی تمام عمر کوشش کرتا ہے۔ اسی طرح غیر تدریسی ممبران بھی اپنی موجودگی کا احساس ادارے کی صفائی، اپنی مسکراہٹ، اور پیار و محبت کے ساتھ وقت بہ وقت دلاتے رہتے ہیں۔ میں اس ادارے کی ترقی و کامیابی کے لیے دوعاگو ہوں۔ مجھے اس ادارے کا طائب علم ہونے پر فخر ہے۔

Studying in Anjuman-I-Islam has been a wonderful experience for me. The teaching faculty who is responsible to groom the future teachers are experienced staff members with many years of teaching experience which helps the students in not only understanding the subject being taught but also they impart some practical knowledge to the students thereby enhancing the students learning experience.

The principal of the college through her vast experience also contributes to the development of the students. The office bearers of the institution also do a fabulous job in supporting the students.

The institution is also very active in the area where they operate by conducting various seminars, activities on adult Education, Women Empowerment etc...thereby contributing to the society, community in where they operate. I wish all the very best and hope to see many more wonderful years ahead.

Congratulations on completing 25 years of Anjuman-I-Islam B.Ed. College. Wishing the entire faculty of B.Ed. College on this occasion. May the college reach great heights with every passing year.

And last of all, Thank you very much for your invitation to the celebrations on 29th Jan. I received your message from my mother since she is using my phone. I am surprised to know that I am the topper for the year 2013-14. I did not know the result of the final exams, except for receiving my mark sheet from my family.

I humbly thank you for having thought of felicitating me on this occasion. With my heart filled, I say Thanks once again. Unfortunately I will be unable to attend since I am in Dubai my father and mother will be present for this occasion on my behalf to an extent they are the ones responsible for my success. My parents had sacrificed their time and energy in looking after me and my children at the time when I was preparing for B.Ed. So it is befitting of them to received this honour on my behalf.

Wishing each one of you and the entire family of Anjuman-I-Islam, success and glory for the Silver Anniversary.

Kindly reply, once you receive this mail. I would be more than happy to hear from you.
Warm wishes and Best Regards.

GLIMPSES FROM PRINT & ELECTRONIC MEDIA

Success is not about what you achieve. It is about achieving what you are capable of achieving. But does anyone know what he or she is capable of achieving? Not really! This is the concept that Joe De Sena presents in his book - The Spartan Up! The book is co-authored by Jeff O'Connell.

Spartan warriors of ancient Greece have inspired generations. They trained hard for years. Their motto was: never be satisfied with what you achieve. In 1972, Walter Mischel, a Stanford researcher, gave his child subjects their preferred treat—a marshmallow, cookie, or pretzel but with a choice: They could eat the treat right away or wait 15 minutes, at which point they could receive two. The researchers found that those kids who were willing to postpone gratification became more successful adults than those kids who couldn't. Joe puts it well: success is a by product of delayed gratification. This is so true. When we look around we find so many people who look successful, yet they are not happy. They are not happy because they have not realized their full potential. They felt satisfied too early in life, stopped running after achieving a milestone.

True, going to the next level requires one to try harder, face discomforts and cross hurdles. According to a racing proverb, "You run the first half with your legs, the second half with your mind." Joe says, "his book is really about the second half of the race". When it is asked him to illustrate this point further, he said, "No matter how fit I was at any point in my life, I have hit a wall with my body and endurance... when I do my mind needs to take over. I did not want to take another step... then my partner collapsed and wanted to be left in the snow... I tied him to me and pulled him through the snow to the next town. I didn't have the energy to this but my mind did!"

You may not win every race or overcome every obstacle but each attempt can be a profound learning experience. Joe's ideas are not just tips from a self-help guru. As he relates his own adventures of Spartan races, his ideas are more inspiring. It tells you the recipe to success and emphasises the importance of hard work. The Spartan Up! - is not just to be read- its concepts are to be applied in life - by all.

COMMUNITY WORK OR SERVICE (Khidmat-e-Khalq Mera Nasbul-Ain)

Community service is donated service or activity that is performed by someone or a group of people for the benefit of the public or its institutions. Performing community service is not the same as volunteering, since it is not always done voluntarily. It may be done for a variety of reasons:

COLLEGE THROUGH THE YEARS...

- governments may require it as a part of citizenship requirements, typically in lieu of military service;
- courts may demand it in lieu of, or in addition to, other criminal justice sanctions;
- school may mandate it to meet the requirements of a class, such as in the case of service-learning or to meet the requirements of graduation.

Community work can mean a range of things:

- being involved in local or neighborhood groups or associations
- being a volunteer or unpaid worker
- being involved in a non-profit, not-for-profit, or charitable organisation or association
- doing public interest or public benefit work
- doing work for a "cause" or a "calling".

Community work occurs across a range of services including information and advice, counseling, advocacy and support — targeting an equally diverse range of people and areas of interest.

Community Service or work is most important activity of University of Mumbai. Being a part of University of Mumbai our college takes up the project PEC from different areas of Community Services.

P.E.C. (Population Education Club) : It is a part of B.Ed. extension work which involves social causes. Students are encouraged to join P.E.C to do some kind of community work.

We are engaged in Community service for last 20 years.

Udaan festival

It is the part of community work. Extension Department of University of Mumbai organizes UDAAN Festival every year at different places.

Library Consortium is a traditional activity among the Libraries, earlier was known as library co-operation. There was an article published in Library Journal in 1880, which was suggested that the libraries must share their resources to meet user requirement.

But Information technology and Communication Technology has boost up new phenomena that facilitates the library functioning much more efficient and comprehensive manner. The resource sharing, subscribing E-books and E-Journals among libraries are considered the prime function of library consortium.

The dictionary meaning consortium is the temporary co-operation among the company for common goal.

In Library and Information science context, the same group libraries coming together to attain common goal, that is what in real sense an individual library could not achieve to its own.

Library Consortiums have come into existence in the world and its number enormously increase in future. In India, there are so many government agencies and other institutes efforts develop consortium. There are so many Library consortium are working among them some are as Cape Higher Education Consortium CHEC, Liwa UAE Higher Education consortium, UGC-INFONET Digital Library Consortium, CSIR Consortium, FORSA consortium etc.

E-Resources which is also called invisible web, can access information from the online database which includes E-books, E-Journals, other professionals publication which can be access online by using connected device such as computer, tab, mobile phone. Today in modern age, the Virtual library, Digital Library and Electronic Library play a vital role to deal with E-Resources by using available devices to access the information for the teaching, learning, research and also publishing work which has become more easier. So the emerging online resources trends specially world wide web is considered a platform of Document Delivery System and online resource sharing to meet user requirement.

E-Resources advantage :

The following are added E-resources advantage over the traditional Libraries.

- Remote access can be avail
- Provide access at 24 x 7 x 365
- Provide help to different search engine
- Physical space can be save
- Helpful to multimedia information
- Simultaneously used by more than one user
- Mobility of information become ease
- Library services discharge less strenuous
- Resources are easier to maintain

Conclusion :

The 21th century is well equipped with Information and communication technology bring the revolution in Library and information centers are considered as a knowledge center, which certainly facilitates academic and research by canalizing specific information services which compliment as cutting edge technology. E-Resources can be used without wasting time span.

REFRESHING THE MIND

It is generally recognized that the present system does not provide opportunities for the professional development of the teachers. It is also recognized that a teacher is pivot of educational system. Teaching is no longer merely an art. Newer methods of teaching and educational technology have made the job of a teacher exact and demanding. In every academic discipline there has been knowledge explosion. A teacher has to continuously update his knowledge in his chosen field of expertise, or take the risk of becoming totally outdated in every short period of time. While the really motivated teacher uses his own resources to keep himself abreast of new knowledge, and to train himself in the latest methodologies and techniques of teaching, it is necessary to provide systematic guidelines and organized Refresher Courses for the large number of teachers at the school level.

It is observed that teachers are so strict with their old methods of teaching and it is also true that opportunities are not provided to them. To Keep all those factors in mind and rapid pace of advancement of technologies in education, the Anjuman-I-Islam's Akbar Peerbhoy College of Education started a Refresher Course in 1998 with the following objectives :-

1. To provide opportunities for the professional development of the teacher.
2. To acquaint with the new methods and technologies of teaching.
3. To update the knowledge of the teacher in his field.
4. To organize especially designed refresher in teaching methodology, pedagogy and new techniques.
5. To fulfill the requirement of NAAC under IQAC

Till date we have completed Nine Refresher Courses for Teachers of Anjuman-I-Islam. Initially the duration of the courses was 12 days. Now it is reduced to six days. We invite Resource Persons from different fields of education. Our faculty also conducts various sessions.

TEACHERS' EVALUATION PROGRAMME

The present need is greatly on how the teacher can understand the demand of the child- the understanding of the learning disability. Generally it has been found that the teacher is only oriented with the child's textbook and not with his inability to understand what is being taught to him in class. We feel: -

1. How many teachers are really reading before going to class is the next priority?
2. Are Projects given sincerely to the child as a course of study or just to kill time?

REFRESHING THE MIND

3. Do teachers plan lesson or is it only kept in the B.Ed. files?
4. How many of us realize the need to give good thought provoking worksheets to the class so that the child is doing learning activity.
5. The need to send students to a counselor is urgent and not superfluous- to do this teacher must have interpersonal relationship with class.
6. Accountability not only to the class but to self- because now school and education is in the focus of the private sector. The child is the Consumer and Client- not the slave.

What is our MISSION AS A TEACHER in ANJUMAN?

This could be one activity where all of us can sit and write a common statement that :

Do I have a set of CORE BELIEFS ?

- Education includes participative and collaborative teamwork, amongst all stakeholders, towards a common vision.
- Every individual is willing and has the potential to contribute.
- Everybody acts in good faith and is willing to examine ones own action.
- Every individual has a different rate of growth and needs to be catered for. The end can never justify the means.
- Every person is equally worthy of dignity.
- Learning comes from listening to others and reflection.
- An open mind facilitates change towards growth.
- Educational leaders need to be proactive to reach the vision.
- Life is learning process. Mistakes are a part of the learning.
- People are empathetic, and are able to care and share.
- Self respect leads to respect for others.
- Basically, human beings are trustworthy, and operate in an atmosphere of mutual trust.
- Freedom is a basic ingredient of creativity and creativity begets creativity.

SELF INSTRUCTIONS

Self-instruction can be defined as the ability of one to cognitively plan, organize, direct, reinforce, and evaluate ones own independent learning without a teacher's prompting. There are three powerful influences behind self-instruction: First the learning and modelling of materials, Second the ability of verbalization, and finally, self-regulation

The use of imagery, which is fundamental in the development of ones cognitive processing, is among the many connections that can be made through Distance Education.

In Self-instruction as in Distance Education numerous threads are required so that the learner can achieve his or her ultimate mastery of the subject.

One can see that the learner is not locked directly into one thread for method of learning. With self-instruction the learner also was able to change the direction of learning as necessary so that the mastery of the materials was achieved.

The following steps outline the components of a self-instructional procedure.

Step 1 : Identify the problem

This step involves identifying and stating the problem that needs to be solved. For example, if a person is hungry and wants something to eat, the problem might be, "I'm hungry." A fast food employee might have multiple responsibilities making it difficult to remember some components of the job. For example, the problem might be, "The napkin holder is empty."

Step 2 : Identify a possible response to the problem

This step requires determining and stating a solution to the problem. The solution might vary depending upon the situation. For example, hunger might be addressed differently depending upon time of day and location. The self-instructional procedure may also be developed to address a specific time of day or circumstance. In this case, the self-instructional procedure may be relevant to lunch time.

A possible response to the problem of being hungry at lunch time might be, "I'll fix a sandwich." The appropriate response for a fast food employee with the empty napkin holder might be, "Fill the napkin holder."

Step 3 : Evaluate the response

The consumer would state, "I fixed myself a sandwich" or "I refilled the napkin holder." The consumer will need to determine if he or she actually did what he or she said they would do. "I fixed the sandwich because I was hungry."

Step 4 : Self-reinforce

The consumer should verbally acknowledge that they got the job done. Something like, "Great, I'm no longer hungry" or "Good, I took care of it."

Another model of self-instruction includes the Did-Next-Now strategy. It is particularly useful for teaching a series of tasks in sequence. The consumer would state the response just completed (Did), what they were doing next (Next), and an instruction to do it now (Now).

An example of this strategy might include a sequence like, "I wiped the table. I need to fill the napkin holders. I will fill the napkin holders now!" A description of the Did-Next-Now strategy and other self-instructional strategies can be found in Hughes (1997).

LIVE HAPPILY FOREVER...

*Live as if you were to die tomorrow.
Learn as if you were to live forever.*

These simple yet meaningful words by Mahatma Gandhi have always held a profound meaning to me. In fact, one which propelled me to learn more.

Today on the 19th day of May 2015, I take immense pride as the President of the Student Council, AIAPCE batch 2014-15; a batch which today is armed with the learning and knowledge from the best in the industry.

When we all came forward to get into this noble profession, each one of us had our own ideas of teaching. With their own individualistic ideas, we came forward on the 1st of August 2014 to AIAPCE. All of us had our own dreams, ideas, hopes and thoughts about how things might be but none of us were braced for the kind of experiences we would have here.

It was here that we were christened as 'Student-Teachers' by our Principal Dr. Asma Shaikh which made us feel so very important. She introduced us to the faculty and familiarised us to the course. She exuded warmth and motivation in all her interactions with us.

In order to accomplish any task successfully, we need to begin with the smallest detail pertaining to the task. So, it all started with the exposure to the intricacies of the teaching learning process in the form of microskills in the first week of the college. From then on, it was all about – Set induction, Questioning, Illustration with examples, Observation... and the list goes on. All this was made possible by the tireless efforts put up by our teachers.

Time constraints, lesson plans, simulated lessons, submissions, tests, all of these did not deter us from putting up an excellent cultural extravaganza for all the events right from the Teacher's Day Celebrations, Christmas parties, and of course the much coveted Silver Jubilee Celebrations. All of our efforts were always applauded and always given a platform by all in the faculty.

Such a myriad of experiences, right from Macro Teaching in College, Internship at Panchgani, Community Service, Practise Teaching at Schools..., so much information weaved so intricately by our teachers..., bonding with friends, were the essence of our B. Ed. course.

The whole year was a helluva of a ride with its ups and downs. But like they say, change is the end result of all true learning, a change for the betterment of all and we have none but our teachers for playing a role in this change process. We take with ourselves the best of experiences of being a teacher, student, friend and leader all rolled into one.

Nothing makes the earth seem so spacious as to have friends at a distance, they make the latitudes and longitudes... so to all my latitudes and longitudes... live happily forever.

HAPPINESS

Happiness is an inside job. You can never predict what will bring a smile to your face, even in the exasperation of gloom. It may be a kind word, a compliment, a chance meeting with a childhood buddy, a blush on the face of your crush, words of inspiration, a surprise gift, an old favourite piece of music, a good poem or simply the evening breeze. It is more to do with the little joyous feelings that some things bring with themselves, than the things themselves. At another instance the same things might successfully incite in you an upsurge of indifference, but they can make of difference during pensive moments.

Happiness is the secret of survival, the song of youth and the bliss of well-being. If at times we feel left behind or lonely, it is because of the absence of this natural therapy, that we were born with.

It's not the stimuli that initiates a 'happy' response. It's our own perception. It's our very own vision of the world that makes the difference.

Happiness can bring about an avalanche of alteration in your world. It is the weapon of the weak and its absence is the sorrow of the strong. Nature wants you to be happy. Among every five things that seem to be going wrong at a given point of time, there will be a massive sixth one, struggling to come into view and your acknowledgement that will promise to work in your favour. The key lies in your hands. Whether we to blindfold ourselves during trying times, so that darkness falls all around. Or to open our eyes and look for that miniscule flickering flame of light which will die out if not nurtured. It may be easier said than done but weigh the stakes for yourself; don't the pros outweigh the cons?? It's definitely worth the try!

FRIENDSHIP: A Fashion

Friendship..... A word with enormous feeling, whenever we hear this word a sweet smile comes on our face. Everyone has a friend becoz this is the only relation a person love to have after one's family. But do we really give as much importance to this relationship as people used to give in olden days. To have answer of this question one should ask this question to one's heart. I am sure when one will ask there is a great possibility that one will get answer of this question as no. I am not saying that it would be in case of everybody but majority will fall in this category.

We are very much aware of the friendship of lord krishna and sudama. In their friendship there was great trust, love, sacrifice for each otheres happiness and great understanding and most important equality. Which i feel lacks alot in today's friendship. I have heard so many times people saying that if any has a good status people will come to that person for friendship.so i think today's friendship somewhere depends on ones financial condition and status in the society.i know people will easily never accept this thing but this is the fact . The proverb" truth is bitter" suits to a great extent in this context.

In olden days people did not use to find any day or occasion to celebrate this beautiful relationship because for them everyday used to be a friendship day. But now as far i have seen most of the people celebrate this relationship only on friendship day. On this day people especially the youth tie friendship band on their's friend hand and some write their name on their friend's hand. More the friendship band and written name on one's hand more friends that person have. Generally it is seen that people love to tie friendship band to only those people who are popular and have good status. If someone is poor and not very popular people love to stay away from that person no matter how good person he or she is, their physical appearance difines everything about them.

So considering all these points it is my conclusion that friendship has become a fashion. As the fashion comes and go same happens with friendship also. Completely it can be seen only on friendship day and suddenly it disappears especially in bad condition. This is the reality of todays friendship.

“Each soul is potentially divine. The goal is to manifest this divinity by controlling nature, external and internal. Do this either by work, or worship, or psychic control, or philosophy - by one, or more, or all of these - and be free. This is the whole of religion. Doctrines, or dogmas, or rituals, or books, or temples, or forms, are but secondary details.”

A lamp can never light another lamp unless...

RABINDRANATH TAGORE

A lamp can never light another lamp unless it continues to burn its own flame. The teacher who has come to the end of his subject, who has no living contact with his knowledge but merely repeats his lessons to his students, can only load their minds; he cannot quicken them. Truth not only must inform but also inspire. If the inspiration dies out, and the information only accumulates, then truth loses its worth. The greater part of our learning in the school has been wasted because, for most of our teachers their subjects are like dead specimens of once living things, with which they have learned acquaintance, but no communication of life and love.

WHERE THE MIND IS WITHOUT FEAR

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high

Where knowledge is free

Where the world has not been broken up into fragments

By narrow domestic walls

Where words come out from the depth of truth

Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection

Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way

Into the dreary desert sand of dead habit

Where the mind is led forward by thee

Into ever-widening thought and action

Into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake.

MORNING ASSEMBLY

The day begins with teachers and children getting the school and class rooms ready for the day ahead. Cleaning the rooms, including the toilets, putting up display boards in the classrooms, organising materials and getting equipment, all these activities conveys a sense of ownership among student and teachers and foster a sense of responsibility towards the material and space they use. This also gives them time to talk to each other and catch up on the events the previous day. This reduces the need for such talk during class time.

During general assembly, everybody sits together, not according to their classes or lines, but younger ones in front and older ones behind. One day a week they listen to an inspiring story. On another day they listen to music, a guest talk, or share a moving experience, read out and discuss an interesting report from the newspaper. Then everyone goes to class.
